

Handbags For Hospices

Mulberry and Gucci were just two of the branded handbags that helped raise hospice funds for The Martlets Hospice. Handbags for Hospices took place at Pub Du Vin Brighton on Thursday 28 February and has helped raise £6,000 for Brighton-based hospice, The Martlets.

The sold out event welcomed 130 guests through the doors and showcased 100 donated bags in a silent auction.

Guests got the chance to bid on a bag that may have previously graced the arm of a glamorous celebrity including Davina McCall, Paloma Faith, Gemma Arterton and Zoe Ball. www.handbagsforhospices.com
